

Laminam

I Naturali

Extra-large and extremely thin slabs that redefine the boundaries of conventional ceramics and offer designers outstanding new opportunities. Produced using an innovative technique, they guarantee excellent performance and practicality of use. Aesthetic research is a key feature. The I Naturali slabs are based on the classic tradition of superior quality stones, offering basalt, travertine and Crema Marfil effects.

