

PiemmeGRES

Natural

The Natural collection is the most modern expression of porcelain tile produced with digital technology. It features an unlimited range of veins and colour tones, giving it a pleasant, material surface. It is highly flexible and can be used on large interior or exterior surfaces in public spaces subject to high foot traffic and on curtain walls that have to satisfy requirements of architectural prestige.

