HAWORTH®

Very Family

Meet Very—a friendly, highly sustainable seating family born out of global design and science-led comfort. With four versatile models—each offering a variety of smart styles and options—there’s a Very chair for practically every place in your company.

Award-winning and absolutely new, Very stacks, swivels, and flexes far beyond ordinary seating to inject comfort and life into any space.

Very Versatile

The sophisticated look of Very blends easily into a wide range of environments. With models and options to support a variety of collaborative needs, Very can be used throughout an organization. Upholstered for large group conferencing or high-density stacking for temporary crowds—and all points in between—Very delivers comfortable, convenient, and collaborative seating.

Very Responsible

Haworth's commitment to Design for the Environment and more sustainable manufacturing is evident throughout all of our products, including the Very family. In fact, Very is made with up to 71% recycled content and up to 98% recyclable materials, and can be disassembled for recycling in less than five minutes. As a result, Very seating has earned gold and silver Cradle to Cradle™ certification by MBDC, achieved GREENGUARD® certification, and may contribute toward your projects' LEED® credits as well.

Very Purposeful

The Very family was designed to meet a wide range of seating needs within a company. Clearly perfect for seminar rooms and teaming spaces, Very is also well-suited to conference rooms—from laid-back to buttoned-up. Lightweight and mobile, Very is ideal for guest seating, touchdown spaces, and the corporate café, as well as multi-purpose areas. Everyone will appreciate the consistency Very brings to the environment.

Very Smart

Very incorporates Haworth's ergonomics and workstyle knowledge into four chair models that satisfy a range of applications and user needs. Conference and seminar chairs offer the most intelligent intuitive recline, converting users' weight into resistance while minimizing seat movement for greater comfort. And all chairs use a flexible back for relaxed support and torsional flexibility. Finally, a purpose-built cart makes it easy to store and move Very chairs wherever they're needed.

Perforated back. In addition to reinforcing Very's light scale and airy, architectural look, the perforations breathe and promote flexibility and torsional movement.
