

Balou

Design James Bronte.
Balou, a chair with clean and slender lines, is completely covered in leather. It is the newborn of the collection that began with the chairs Marta, Mirta, Marten and the stool Mirtillo. All these seats feature covers in leather or skin, warm materials that lend a touch of elegance and refinement to the different environments in which they are placed. The back of Balou is slightly inclined to guarantee comfort and relaxation. The frame is in steel, the upholstery in leather or skin.
