FORm_trading T120

Wrap Around Trading

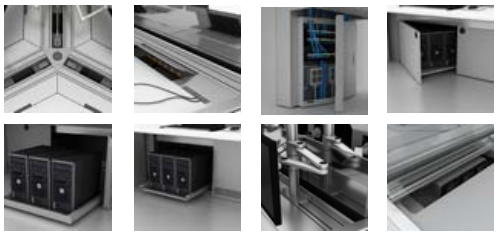

FORm_trading T120 brings new shape-building possibilities to trading floor designs. Whether in combination with linear positions or as a pure organic cluster layout, FORm_trading T120 brings a fresh new aesthetic to any trading floor.

T120 Design Features and Details

A Simple Change for a Wider Range of Options

FORm_trading T120 features a central 120 degree core for adding components from lighting to monitors, even on an angle. The T120 and its 120 degree core can be combined with standard T4 desks to achieve unique configurations.
