We've applied everything we've learned from the aerodynamic spirit of the Pasadena Dining Chair to our new slipper chair and ottoman, fleshing out the equipoise between comfort, strength, and minimal design. Simple, spare, and versatile enough to be used in a bedroom, living room, or den, the chair's construction is remarkably solid. A grain-matched solid cherry back is joined to the seat by flush joints that appear to pour out over the sides to form the serpentine legs. Relaxed without being careless, the Pasadena Slipper Chair lends elegant style and support while remaining determinedly casual.
