

MIND-SHARE™

There's more than one way to Gather. And that's the beauty of the modular Mind-Share. Create one-, two-, or three-sided micro-environments. From open and inviting to visible yet private, it's comfortable and flexible so you're free to design spaces that allow people to share thoughts and ideas.

Allsteel®

MIND-SHARE A bench. A screen. A micro-environment. It's whatever you need it to be.

Simple elements come together to create a vast array of versatile meeting space options. Choose screens in varying lengths. Match them with corresponding benches to create café booths, banquettes, or even semi-private mini-rooms. Say goodbye to inflexible millwork options and use Mind-Share to efficiently redefine spaces. Segment large rooms. And design unique areas utilizing All-Around™ and Belong™ tables where people can meet, work, talk, and get things done. Stand-alone benches can also be used for seating in open or enclosed spaces.

The soft angles and classic form offer comfort, while a range of upholstery options on the screen, seat, and bolster allows you to make a statement or be understated. The simple lines of Mind-Share work seamlessly with other pieces within the Gather collection for a cohesive and complementary appeal.
