ANTRIM Side Chair

The Antrim chair is a classic example of wood and metal skillfully fused together to create today's must-have contemporary chair. Available in a variety of styles and finishes, the Antrim reflects the AGATI design tradition. Impeccably designed and constructed, the Antrim chair is graced with a floating seat, clean welds, gusseted frames and a molded ply back.

A tubular metal frame serves as the chair foundation, with a formed wood veneer plywood seat and back panels. Black, stardust silver or environmentally friendly chrome powder coat finishes modify the Antrim chair to fit its surroundings. The Antrim is also available with an upholstered seat and/or back. The Antrim Collection includes benches, chairs, study tables, occasional tables, carrels, and end panels. Visit agati.com for more options.
