With giant cliffs over the Pacific as huge stone sharp needles stretching in height and plunging into the ocean between mystical sea caves and scalloped beaches, Na Pali Coast is a place almost inaccessible, surrounded by many inspiring legends. Hawaiian legend tells that Pele, goddess of fire, went to Na Pali in search of a home but her sister and rival, Namakaokaha'i, goddess of the sea, drove her away in a violent confrontation whose marks remained visible forever. Protected between Na Pali ribbed walls is Honopū valley that seems to form a seat on the mountain, in which the gods can sit back and admire the constant battles between the natural World.

The Na Pali sofa is a reinterpretation of the Na Pali armchair concept.
To know more about the Na Pali armchair please consult the details.

Inspired by the legend of the two goddess that fought over the great Na Pali Coast, Na Pali sofa portrays the mystique of the dramatic verdant valleys, striated walls and sharp ridges. The wooden sides extend as cliffs, the front feet get the form of the numerous sculpted needles across the landscape and the handcrafted work in velvet combines the variations of the vast range of Na Pali Coast colours so that humans may sit like gods on the towering cliffs.
