

Tangled is a signature print designed by Royal College of Art graduate, Emma J Shipley. Tangled is the partner to her iconic design, Titus, which features the majestic silverback gorilla. Her exquisitely detailed drawings of evolution and nature have been translated onto our 100% Laneve™ traceable wool Blazer fabric.

Tangled is the result of an innovative collaboration with up and coming London based fashion designer, Emma J Shipley. Emma’s elaborately detailed pencil drawings of nature and Darwinian evolution have translated onto our felted Blazer fabric, made from lambswool traceable right back to the source.

Tangled forms the beautiful coordinate or standalone pattern to Titus, showcasing entangled branches and organic, botanical patterns. Intricate printing techniques have allowed this meticulously detailed artwork to transfer onto six Blazer shades inspired by nature’s beauty.

This stunning design featuring animalistic foliage and jungle vines creates a distinctive high fashion statement.
