Designers

Henry Domke is a former family physician who now focuses on nature photography to inspire healing. His images inspire the Cucumber, Wild Persimmon, and Wildflower patterns.

Steven Meyers is a medical x-ray technician who uses x-ray photography to expose delicate natural textures and structures. His images inspire the Dogwood, Sheer, and Seeded Eucalyptus patterns.

Zeva Oelbaum is an anthropologist interested in the Victorian-era photographic cataloguing of natural elements. Her images inspire the Lavender, Pine, and Vine patterns.

Botanica

Inspired by the nature photography of Henry Domke, Steven Meyers, and Zeva Oelbaum. The collection offers three exclusive images from each photographer for a wide array of creative options for scale, texture, color, and transparency. Particularly impressive in healthcare settings, Botanica exudes the healing and calming effects of nature.
