The sleekness of this design belies its soft, inviting comfort. Studio is finely scaled – the club chair measures 27”W x 28”D x 32”H – so it works especially well in environments where space is at premium, or where a lighter presence for furnishings is desired. Lightness of scale is enhanced by tapered legs in brushed chrome, and a subtle arch on the front face. Hidden inside Studio is a unique coiled-spring suspension system, which is combined with multiple densities of foam to provide exceptional comfort.
