

EMU ADVANCED COLLECTION

From Coalesse

coalesse®

Natural habitat.

Research shows that working outdoors can increase creativity and productivity. Whether for socializing or quiet concentration, outdoor settings are prime destinations where we connect, collaborate and rejuvenate. They are the natural extension of great workplaces.

The EMU Advanced Collection, available from Coalesse, inspires fresh and inviting outdoor workspaces. Established in Italy in 1951, EMU builds upon decades of traditional metalwork and creativity in collaboration with international designers. EMU is known for making exceptionally crafted modern furniture that is beautiful, durable and comfortable.

EMU Heaven
Jean-Marie Massaud, Italy

Graceful weave.

Through a unique process of weaving and welding, metal mesh drapes like fabric in the EMU Heaven Series by Jean-Marie Massaud — creating seating with an ethereal lightness and a finely gauged softness.

EMU Ivy
Paola Navone, Italy

Encompassing nature.

Inspired by the ancient art of topiary, the EMU Ivy Series exploits the sculptural versatility of metal. The open, volumetric structures allow grass and ivy to grow through and around the EMU Ivy Sofa and Lounge Chair, so they become a part of the landscape.

EMU Kira

Christophe Pillet, France

Tablescapes.

Simple yet sophisticated, the EMU Kira tables by Christophe Pillet will inspire gatherings of all kinds. Fixed and extending table styles combine durable aluminum frames and porcelain stoneware tops in clean-cut, delicate lines.

EMU Lyze

Florent Coirier, France

Modern mesh.

Technical and timeless, the EMU Lyze Series by Florent Coirier revisits an iconic wire construction. Unusual stainless steel backrests are attached to aluminum seats and come in sophisticated color combinations. Small fiber cement top tables add stylish function anywhere.

EMU Pattern
Arik Levy, Italy

Structural lightness.
The EMU Pattern Series by Arik Levy plays with a structure of transparency and lightness. When immersed in the landscape, the perforated metal dissolves into dappled outlines — bringing modern technology into harmony with natural beauty.

EMU Re-Trouvé
Patricia Urquiola, Italy

Past meets present.
The EMU Re-Trouvé Series by Patricia Urquiola is inspired by the reinterpretation of classic design: the gentle curves of nostalgic design combined with modern production.

EMU Round
Christophe Pillet, Italy

Slingback simplicity.

The EMU Round Series, designed by Christophe Pillet, is characterized by an elemental design of snug and comfortable shapes, with simple slingback profiles that provide unexpectedly soft seats.

EMU Terramare
Studio Chiaramonte/Marin, Italy

Material mix.

Simple cane-and-canvas furniture is reinvented in die-cast aluminum in the EMU Terramare Series. Tables and arm chairs for dining and gathering share elegant, light frames, mixed with innovative eco-leather chair backs that add a sculptural, vintage element.
