CONNECTING FURNITURE, PEOPLE & ENVIRONMENTS

T O D D B R A C H E R

Over the past 20 years, Todd Bracher has collaborated with some of the most prestigious brands around the world, including heading Tom Dixon's design studio, acting as the Professor of Design at l'ESAD in Reims France, and serving as Creative Director of the Scandinavian luxury brand Georg Jensen. Pinned as 'America's next great Designer', he has also received nominations for International Designer of the Year and been the recipient of many Best of NeoCon awards.

ANDAZ SEATING COLLECTION

Created in response to the casual café environment, Todd Bracher's Andaz Series of versatile stools and stackable chairs marries perfect portion with material diversity. Refined elegance paired with simplicity of form, Andaz achieves aesthetic flexibility with a sophisticated palette and range of upholstery, wood and paint styles.

KEVIN STARK

Vice President of Design at the HNI Contract Furniture Group, Kevin has been a member of the HBF family since 1986. He is an integral part of HBF's design legacy and its quest for classic modernism. In addition to overseeing design development for HBF, he is also an award-winning furniture designer. His Eiffel Occasional Table Series, Canterbury Series, and Cadre Series have all won Best of NeoCon awards.

CARLYLE SEATING COLLECTION

Named for the historic Carlyle Hotel in New York City, this series designed by Kevin Stark celebrates the essence of timeless design. Combining rich materiality with classic forms, Carlyle highlights the natural beauty of quarter-sawn Ash with a distinct curved back and brushed metal accents.

WOUT SPEYERS

A leading Dutch product and industrial designer with architectural training, Wout founded his own Netherlands design studio in 2008. His love of furniture design began at Neonis Industrial Design and continued while serving as Director of Product Development for Goelst USA Inc. A nominee of many Dutch design awards, Wout is best known for his IRS mail sorting desk, UN tables, Maarten van Severen chairs, Twister coat rack and his design of the Museum for Historic Posters at the Spuiplein subway station in Hague.

CHEVAL TABLE & BENCH COLLECTION

Wout Speyers redefines the term 'multifunctional' in his Cheval Series. Cheval's curved, clean form reduces complexity while increasing its adaptability, allowing it to serve as a modern bench or sophisticated table depending on the user or environment.

TRAVIS CLIFTON

Over the course of her 25 year career, Travis has directed and implemented strategic visioning for leading furniture manufacturers, including heading the design studio for Gary Lee Partners. Prior to starting her own design studio in 2005, she worked for several prestigious Chicago design firms, including ISD and Carlos Martinez & Associates. Based in Chicago, Illinois, Travis draws upon her Southern heritage and Midwestern influences in the design of her furniture and interiors.

PARKER TABLE COLLECTION

Inspired by the pure form of the Parsons table, Travis Clifton created this sleek series of cocktail, console, side, bar, counter, and conference tables with an appreciation for materiality. Classic silhouettes offered in a variety of wood and surface finishes allow the tables to be customized to suit any environment or design aesthetic.

CORE TABLE COLLECTION

Designed by HBF Studios with the hospitality environment in mind, Core's clean minimal aesthetic combine form and materiality with pure function. Available in a variety of surface and rich metal base finishes, the series' elegant use of materials bring a refined look to contemporary environments.
