Frames, Seats & Backs

Milk frames are produced using glass reinforced nylon and include integrated nylon glides, while seats and backs are produced using glass reinforced polypropylene for durability.

Upholstered seats and/or backs incorporate high-density polyurethane foam.

materials

Glass reinforced nylon and polypropylene is used to create a rigid, dimensionally stable and lightweight chair. These state-of-the-art materials have been selected to ensure an extended product life cycle.

upholstery

Bring additional style to your chair with contrasting or complementary upholstery. The padded seat rolls over the lip for comfort, while at the same time maintaining a low profile for stacking. Upholstery is protected by standard seat pans when stacked.
