Milliken™

Sendal in Whittle Grass, monolithic tile installation

Sendal

Taking cues from the shapes created when a 'wish tree' is populated during the ceremonial activity of 'omikuji', Sendal explores the angles and geometry viewed while these pieces of tied paper are suspended in the air. Light, effortless and rich in texture, Sendal's loop and tip shear construction offers a subtle pattern in 18 colors that work elegantly in the workplace or hospitality environment.
