INGMAR

Nienkämper

The Ingmar chair is a perfect example of simplicity of form combined with best in class materials and quality of workmanship. This low-slung, versatile lounge chair is generously scaled for comfort and answers the call for high-back wood chair designs.

Graceful bentwood arms extend from the back and flow down to its slightly tapered, front legs resulting in gracious uninterrupted lines that provide maximum structural strength and give this design its luxurious comfort.

Ingmar lounge chair is available standard in natural maple, cherry and walnut, and wood finishes are available stained to match. Seating materials are black polymer mesh, upholstered in fabrics and leather with channel stitching or saddle leather.

The beautiful, simple design of the Ingmar is naturally elegant. Its slightly curved lines create a casual elegance and offers Nienkämper's expression timeless design. Ingmar is perfectly at ease in both classic and contemporary interiors. Its small footprint and superior comfort also make it ideal for libraries to casual meetings spaces, and lounge areas alike.
