Sit back to back or side to side. With sculptured edges and soft lines Divvi features an angled, supportive back and elevated armrests which combine to create a unique dividing element with strong character that offers optimum personal spatial quality. While the back intentionally functions as an armrest, ensuring further comfort. Specify contrasting upholstery for the seat and back to enhance aesthetic appeal and create a strong visual interest.

Divvi is a substantial piece all the while maintaining a relatively small foot print designed to facilitate a wide range of environments from reception areas, waiting rooms and other open spaces, Divvi offers comfortable seating from 2 up to 8 people at once.
