Altitude® A6

Move Through Your Workday

In today's active workplaces, Altitude A6 height-adjustable tables make movement a natural part of your day as you transition from sitting to standing. Increased movement enhances work efficiency and creates a sense of well-being.

Make It Your Own

Everyone works differently. Through a variety of features and material options, Altitude A6 adapts to fit the individual user, letting you choose how to work.

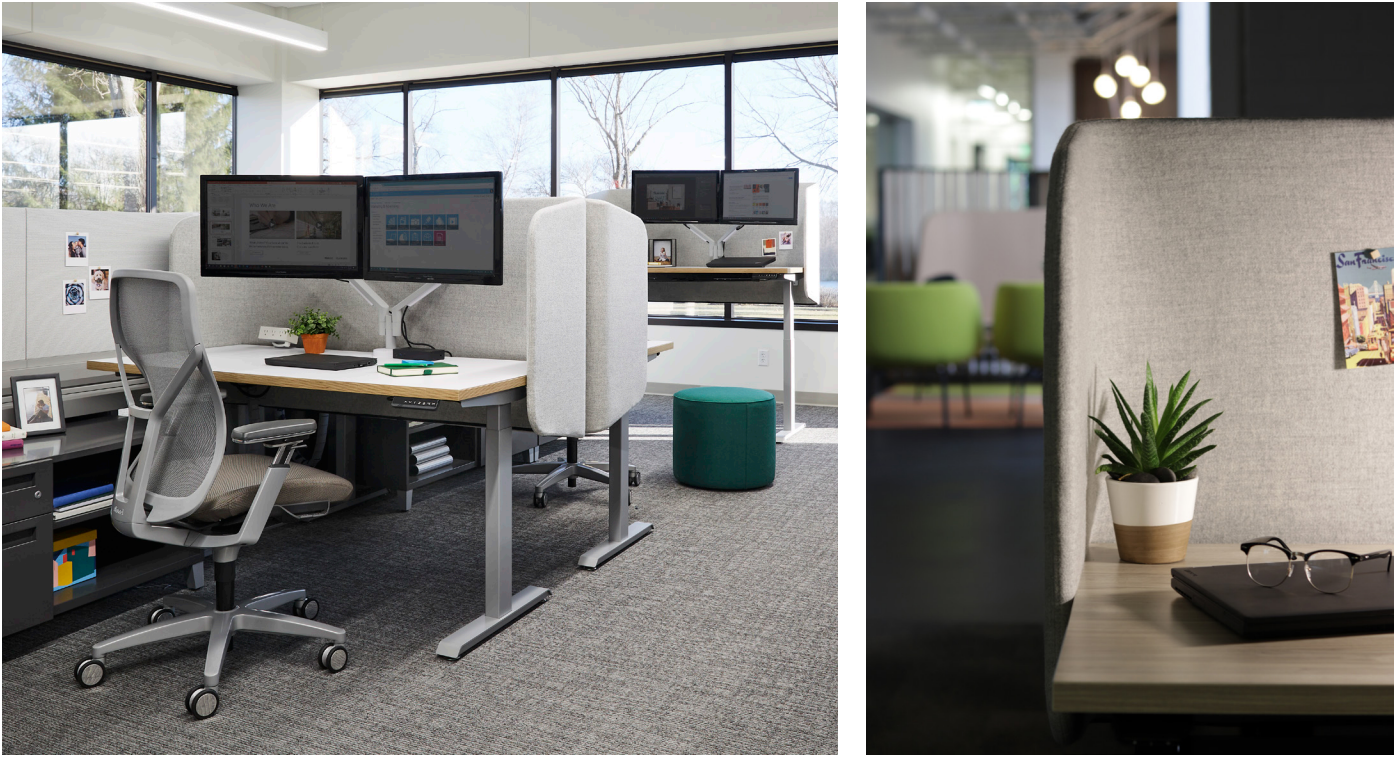

A wide range of adjustable heights and weight capacity help every user find the perfect comfort level.

With 5 control panel options, users have the ability to select the right control to meet their individual needs.

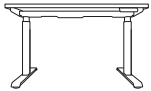

Radii™ storage moves with the user, optimizing efficiency without compromising the compressed work area.

Altitude A8 screen provides a solution for the challenge of open-space planning: privacy that moves up and down with you.
