SHADOW VELVET 66005 Color: Neolithic 02996
Woven Installation

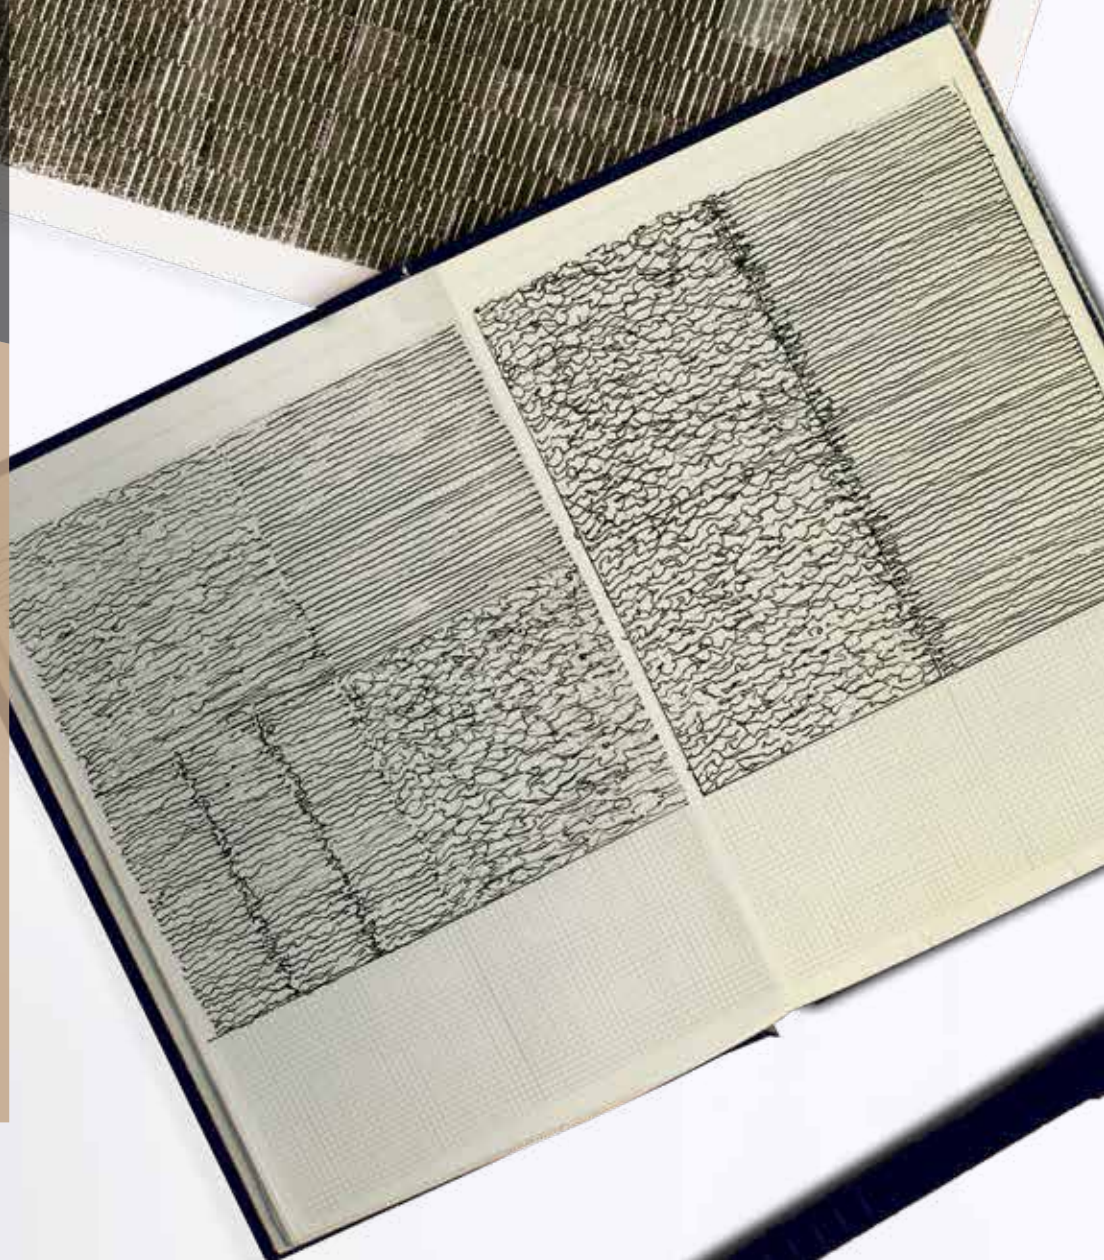

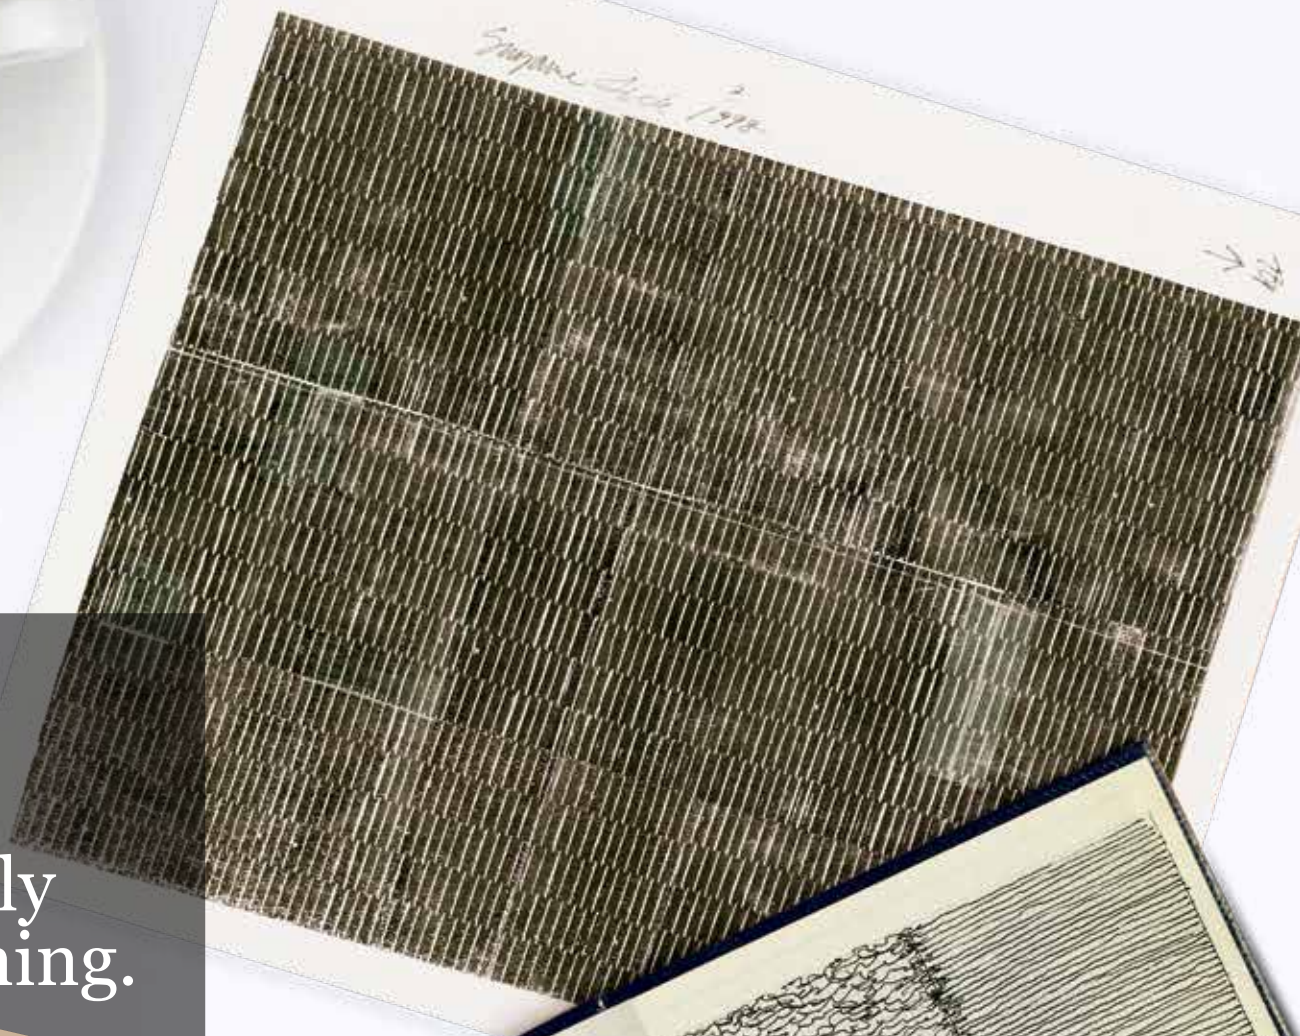

Dating back to the early 1800s, Tandus Centiva's rich history in woven carpets continues with the soft, hand-made look of Shadow Velvet—the latest expression from weaver and textile designer Suzanne Tick. The name Shadow Velvet comes from the Van de Wiele "velvet" loom on which it is woven in Truro, Nova Scotia. With earthy warm and cool neutrals informed by natural stones and minerals, plus a calming blue to reflect ocean and sky, Shadow Velvet's color palette and plush surface allow corporate spaces to achieve a residential feel that facilitates stillness and inward reflection.

Building on our heritage.

Simply stunning.

Inspired by her interest in textural simplicity and the austerity of Agnes Martin's drawing series, Suzanne has worked to capture a spiritual approach to pattern, causing its structure to become a form of meditation. Shadow Velvet's cut/loop construction is also lightly tip-sheared, with space-dyed yarns that mimic natural, hand-dyed yarns. The result is a soft, handmade look and uniquely subtle, textile-like aesthetic. With its refreshing take on the look and feel of corporate offices, Shadow Velvet is perfect for maturing tech companies and the financial sector.
