INSPIRED.

The magnitude of the earth's dynamic geological processes creates awe and inspires wonder. Propelled by deep underground activity, natural forces separate and merge the earth's crust to form new landscapes. Transformations are both steady and immediate. Continents are reconfigured slowly with the passage of time, or dramatically with volcanic and seismic activity.

INSPIRING.

The Continental Collection evokes dramatic movement with solution-dyed nylon flooring that celebrates the shapes and textures of the earth's changing topographies. A striation pattern with energetic movement grounds the collection while four larger scale patterns strike a keen balance between sharp geometrics and softer organics. Plank carpet tiles enable myriad installation methods and unique pattern-on-pattern aesthetics.
