Welcome + Waiting

In any healthcare space, lasting comfort can be as important as first impressions, especially when managing patient satisfaction is essential. You can provide a sense of well-being with well-designed collections that feel as good as they look and provide peace of mind in a pandemic-conscious world.

Highlights:
Accommodate all guests with models made for accessibility.

Patients + Guests

Warm welcomes and comfortable waits are just the beginning of the patient (and guest) journey. The need to provide a reassuring, supportive experience extends behind closed doors into the rooms and spaces where they often stay the longest.

Highlights:
Design impactful areas for exams, consultations, treatments and more.
Curate across collections for even greater versatility.
Elevate quality of care with high design and performance.

Caregivers + Staff

Great care requires great support. And great support comes from solutions that promote productivity while reducing stress and preventing injury. When you engineer for ergonomics, you can provide wellness for everyone in the care process.

Highlights:

*Provide on-call comfort to people constantly in motion.
Work efficiently with design that doesn't get in the way.
Inject some personality to clinical environments.*

Administrative + Virtual Healthcare

Healthcare is always moving forward, and the rise of virtual healthcare demonstrates how quickly it can evolve. Keeping up requires solutions that are just as smart, responsive and adaptable — no matter the place or space.

Highlights:
*Build comprehensive workstations for any number of staff.
Enhance setups with convenient add-ons and accessories.
Ensure all-day ergonomics wherever you provide care.*

Community + Learning

Caring is a social experience, and breakthroughs happen everywhere – even in breakrooms. That’s why healthcare facilities seek solutions (fixed and flexible) that support coming together for the greater good.

- Highlights:
- Create critical collaborating, training and learning spaces.
 - Provide responsive, agile solutions for audiences of any size.
 - Offer convenience and comfort for interactive, communal areas.

Collaboration + Cafe

Conference + Office

Healthcare organizations are in the business of caring. And they need workplace products that are equally focused on providing support – in every aspect of the business. That’s why, when it comes to offering award-winning, reliable solutions, we’re the go-to for executives and administrators.

Highlights:
Deploy corporate configurations – from board rooms to private offices.
Choose from airy meshes, featured fabrics, lush leather and more.
Provide the same on-call comfort away from clinical, caring spaces.
