

INTRODUCING
GLINDA

Arc|Com

The beautiful flowering poppy plant was the muse for this modern floral. The use of an angular silhouette and a chunky weave structure gives pattern Glinda a hand-stitched flavor with a contemporary feel.

The image displays three fabric swatches stacked vertically. The top swatch features a pattern of large, dark grey leaves and smaller orange leaves on a dark background. The middle swatch has a pattern of large, light blue leaves and smaller dark blue leaves on a dark blue background. The bottom swatch shows a pattern of large, light green leaves and smaller dark green leaves on a dark green background. All three patterns are created using a woven texture.

STAIN RESISTANT FINISH

BLEACH CLEANABLE

The image displays three layers of a fabric with a repeating floral and leaf pattern. The top layer is a light beige color with dark brown patterns. The middle layer is a darker brown with lighter beige patterns. The bottom layer is a very dark brown or black with light beige patterns. The fabric appears to be a woven material, possibly a textile sample for durability testing. The layers are slightly offset, showing the wear and how the pattern changes as the top layer is rubbed away.
