

Noé bench featuring black, concealed glides

Noé bench pairs with X&O occasional to create new configurations

Plinth base shown in Grey

Noé

Drawing inspiration from the mystical stone circles of Ballynoé, Ireland, the Noé collection of benches offers a versatile and playful way to support a building's interior architecture. With a range of organic shapes and sizes, Thijs Smeets designed Noé to fit seamlessly in almost any environment, from pediatric areas to expansive waiting rooms. Each piece combines an appealing design with functional versatility, making Noé an adaptable choice for modern interior space.

Full product information

View more on Specify & Price for complete specification information and statement of line.

---

Thought starters

Thijs Smeets

Thijs Smeets founded Studio Smeets, his own Amsterdam-based design firm, in 2007. Since completing his extensive education as both a designer and engineer, he has crafted a wide variety of products, from eyeglasses to consumer electronics to furniture.

Many of his designs have attracted worldwide acclaim and awards including the Toon van Tuijl Design Award as well as recognition for Good Industrial Design. Thijs Smeets is especially well-known for designing an ingenious reading light called LiliLite.