Generation by Knoll
Work Chair

The innovative, elastic design of Generation by Knoll gives you the flexibility and comfort you need to sit and work however you choose. The first chair to promote unrestrained movement, Generation is a true reflection of innovation and thoughtful design.

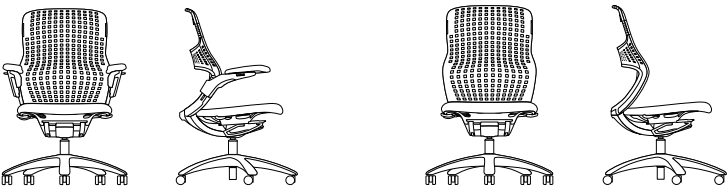

- A The Flex Back supports many different postures and allows for multidimensional movement throughout the workday
- B Flex Seat offers 270° of seat edge flex without a hard frame or obtrusive levers
- C Dynamic Suspension control provides a weight-compensated, smooth ride—without the complexity of metal links or springs and enables an enhanced range of energizing, side-to-side movements
- D The Flex Top allows the top edge of the back to fold over, extending your range of movement and offering comfort in any position

Warranty
