

Obee

Transition back

Sculpted for people. Designed for possibility.

Obee is a working modular lounge collection that celebrates the beauty of human connection and the versatility of space. Designed in partnership with Webb—creators of the award-winning Obeya—Obee features sculptural curves, thoughtful transitions, and soft forms that invite comfort while echoing architectural rhythm.

Integrated power

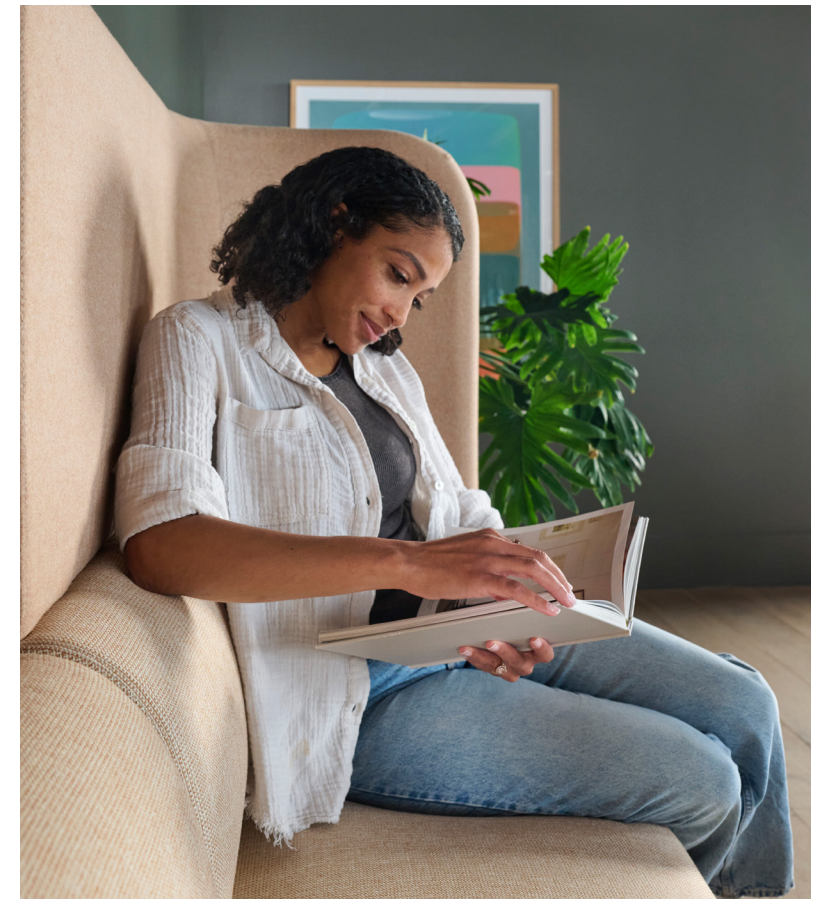

Built-in ganging and power pass through

Obee adapts with intention.

Obee's modular design adapts effortlessly to its surroundings—whether forming personal retreats, collaborative nooks, or dynamic team hubs. Lumbar support is sculpted into the backrest, offering lasting comfort that feels as natural as the flow of conversation. Thoughtfully integrated power options support today's mobile workstyles, allowing users to stay connected without disrupting the clean aesthetic.

Ergonomic lumbar support

Sculpted to belong

Its signature curve is intentionally shaped to nestle seamlessly within the interior radius of Obeya, creating visual harmony and spatial cohesion. Together, they form a unified environment that balances structure and comfort.
